Foodscaping Design Planner Detailed Checklist

Plan Your Foodscaping Design

Foodscaping Design Goals

Measure available space (length x width): Measurements:

Assess sunlight exposure (full sun, partial shade, etc.): The maximum amount of sunlight in different areas of my yard:

Determine your design style (formal, cottage, modern, etc.): My design method:

Decide how much of your yard you want to dedicate to foodscaping: The chosen areas of my yard:

Consider pathways and seating areas for the layout: My pathway ideas:

My seating ideas:

Plant Selection

Choose the vegetables to grow (e.g., tomatoes, peppers, spinach, etc.): My vegetables:

Select fruit varieties (e.g., apples, strawberries, blueberries, etc.): My fruit:

Pick herbs for your garden (e.g., basil, rosemary, thyme, etc.): My herbs:

Add ornamental plants (flowers, grasses, etc.) for color and design: My flowers:

My ornamental grasses:

Layout Planning

Draw or sketch your garden layout (include plant placements): My plant placements:

Plan where to place raised beds, containers, or vertical gardens: By garden bed placements:

Consider spacing requirements for each plant: Plant spacing requirements:

Plan pathways for walking and garden access: My garden access plans:

HOA Considerations

Review HOA gardening guidelines (what's allowed or restricted): My HOA gardening guidelines:

Check regulations for raised beds, fences, or tall structures: My HOA regulations:

Plan to blend edibles with ornamental plants for aesthetic appeal: My edibles and ornamental blend ideas:

Maintenance & Sustainability

Create a monthly maintenance schedule (watering, pruning, etc.): My maintenance plan:

Plan for composting or mulching to improve soil health: My compost plan:

- Compost pile:
- Compost bin:
- Indoor composting:

Include sustainable practices such as rainwater collection or organic care: My sustainable practice plans:

Research eco-friendly pest control methods (e.g., natural predators): My pest control plans: